The brand dates back to 1899 when Hulman &amp; Co (owners of the Indianapolis Speedway) introduced Clabber brand baking powder. In addition to baking powder, Clabber Girl has extended its reach in the baking aisle to include cornstarch and baking mixes. In 2003, Clabber Girl Corporation acquired Delisheries, Ltd., and extended the Delisheries line of products to include new muffin and brownie mixes. Delisheries, the fundraising division of Clabber Girl, product line includes: cookies, muffins, brownies and pet treats baking mixes. Their gourmet baking mixes are made with all-natural, quality ingredients and are packaged in re-sealable plastic tubs. Just add egg and butter to make these tasty treats! No refrigeration required until you mix it up. FFA Multiple Purpose Baking Mix is available as a fundraiser in special containers and will be at retail Fall 2007.
